ALBERTA SECURITIES COMMISSION

BLANKET ORDER 91-503

Over-the-Counter Derivatives Transactions and Commodity Contracts

Definitions

1. Terms defined in the Securities Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. S-4 (the Act) have the same meaning in this Order. In addition:
 - (a) “acceptable clearing corporation” means a clearing agency that:
 - (i) operates a central system for clearing of derivatives transactions;
 - (ii) is subject to enabling legislation and oversight by a central or regional government authority in an eligible country of operation that provides for compliance and powers of enforcement over its members or participants; and
 - (iii) is named in a schedule from time to time published for the purpose of this Order with the approval of the Executive Director.
 - (b) “commodity contract” means a contract that contains an obligation to make or take future delivery of a commodity, which contract is not an OTC derivative and which contract may include an option for cash settlement.
 - (c) “eligible country of operation” means a country that is a member of the Basle Accord and a country that has adopted the banking and supervisory rules set out in the Basle Accord.
 - (d) “OTC derivative” means an agreement in respect of an option, forward contract, contract for differences or other instrument of a type commonly considered to be a derivative, or any combination of any of them, if:
 - (i) the material economic terms of the agreement have been customized to the purposes of the parties to the agreement and the agreement is not part of a fungible class of agreements that are standardized as to their material economic terms;

- (ii) the creditworthiness of a party to the agreement would be a material consideration in entering into or determining the terms of the agreement,
 - (iii) the agreement is not entered into or traded on or through an organized market, stock exchange or futures exchange; and
 - (iv) the agreement, if cleared, is cleared through an acceptable clearing corporation.
- (e) “Qualified Party” means any of the entities listed in the Appendix to this Order, where each is acting as principal, or alternatively as an agent or trustee for accounts that are fully managed by it. For the purposes of this order, a party is a Qualified Party for the purpose of any OTC derivative transaction or commodity contract if that party is a Qualified Party at the time the party enters into the transaction or contract.

Background

2. The Act requires registration of certain persons who deal in securities or exchange contracts, unless such persons are expressly exempted from such registration.
3. The Act also prohibits the distribution of securities unless a preliminary and a final prospectus have been filed with the Commission and the Executive Director has issued receipts for each of the preliminary and the final prospectus, unless such distribution is expressly exempted from the prospectus requirement.
4. The Act does not provide for regulation of OTC derivatives. However, the definition of "security" in the Act includes futures contracts and options that are not exchange contracts. As a result, certain parties and their clients who contract with one another for such futures contracts and options (including certain OTC derivatives) are subject to registration and prospectus requirements, unless exempted.
5. Similarly, parties who wish to contract with one another for certain commodity contracts, are also subject to registration and prospectus requirements, unless exempted.
6. Blanket Order 91-502 Over-the-Counter Derivatives Transactions and Commodity Contracts 9 A.S.C.S. 2995 (Blanket Order 91-502) was issued on 4 August 2000. It cannot be relied upon for OTC derivative transactions cleared through the facilities of a clearing agency.
7. Clearing agencies have come increasingly to act as central counterparties for the clearing of OTC derivative transactions since Blanket Order 91-502 was issued.

8. Section 10(1)(b) of the Act allows the Commission to make an order designating a futures contract or a class of futures contracts, not to be a futures contract, provided that such order is not prejudicial to the public interest

Order

9. The Commission, considering that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to replace Blanket Order 91-502 to expand the scope of the relief thereby granted to include OTC derivative transactions cleared through clearing agencies, orders under sections 10(1)(b) and 214 of the Act as follows:

- (a) the following OTC derivatives transactions and commodity contracts are not futures contracts as defined in subsection 1(x) of the Act:
- (i) an OTC derivatives transaction of which the underlying interest consists of an interest rate, Canadian or foreign currency, a foreign exchange rate, a commodity, a security, an index, a benchmark, or other variable, or another OTC derivative, or some relationship between, or combination of, one or more of any of them;
 - (ii) a commodity contract; or
 - (iii) a contract for the sale or exchange of a commodity that provides for the physical delivery only of the subject matter of the contract;

provided, in the case of the OTC derivatives transactions and commodity contracts referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) are made between Qualified Parties who each act as principal except in respect of Qualified Parties described in paragraphs (BB) and (CC) of the Appendix to this Order;

- (a.1) any reference to Blanket Order 91-502 in Alberta Securities laws shall be read as a reference to this Order;
- (b) Blanket Order 91-502 is revoked, and this Order comes into effect, concurrently on 31 March 2008.
